INTRODUCTION

FROM THE CHAIR OF SACRE

This has been an interesting year with a number of changes to accommodate. Having held our in-person meetings mainly in the schools represented by our Group C Teacher Representatives in previous years, we decided to meet – where feasible – in some of the places of worship represented by Group A faiths. We began by visiting Maidenhead Gurdwara in September, held our March meeting in Maidenhead Synagogue and finished the year in June, at St Edward the Confessor Catholic Church in Windsor. Each session began with a pre-meeting tour and then a 30- minute introduction to the faith. I think we would all agree that these meetings have provided a wonderful opportunity to listen, to ask questions and to learn together. My thanks go out to all three excellent hosts.

SACRE membership has remained relatively stable. We have been able to recruit to replace our Key Stage 4 rep and continue to seek replacements for those who have left. Despite this natural turnover, it has been exciting to realise that we now have eight serving teachers and one headteacher amongst us, ensuring that the realities of life in school are constantly brought into sharp focus and help to govern our priorities. It was valuable to listen to three colleagues whose interviews about their work as RE leads were shared at the December meeting.

Much of the year has focused on the need to work alongside the other five Berkshire Unitary Authorities to reach a consensus on the shape and content of the new Agreed Syllabus. This was ably led by Anne Andrews who kept us constantly up-to-date with developments and who encouraged us all to respond to the proposals from our different perspectives. During the autumn term the syllabus was signed off by all LAs and we set a date for a formal launch in the spring of 2025. This event subsequently became a training opportunity for RE leads across the county, however, as some issues arose leading to further suggested amendments to the syllabus and these have yet to be endorsed by SACRE members.

Each SACRE meeting includes a written summary of all Ofsted inspection outcomes for RBWM schools and, where there has been a SIAMS inspection, the report is circulated for discussion. This year there have been many excellent references to school practices in the area of personal development, inclusion and the understanding and appreciation of differing worldviews.

RE Network meetings have promoted the RBWM Audit Tool as a means of embedding formative assessment for RE and it has been good to see interest from secondary colleagues in this. In the spring, two Heads of RE spent very productive days in one another's schools, funded by SACRE, and this initiative is set to develop in the year to come. Our serving teachers are a real strength of SACRE, a pool of knowledge and expertise, and they are keen to work together which bodes well for the future. Several more SACRE members have taken advantage of the RE Hubs training as school speakers representing their different faiths and now number eight. A Year 10 Worldviews Day at Charters School, held in the summer term, involved input from three members of SACRE. Slowly but surely we are beginning to emerge as a group of colleagues who are beginning to take a more active role in the Borough's schools.

Perhaps the biggest change this year came in the retirement of Anne Andrews, our Diocesan Adviser. Anne's guidance over the years has been invaluable and we wish her every happiness as she steps back from this role. We welcome Katie Dickens in her stead, confident that we will benefit from her understanding and knowledge of RE and her significant experience as a headteacher.

OVERVIEW

Windsor and Maidenhead SACRE met five times during the year 2024-25, three times as SACRE and twice as the Agreed Syllabus Conference. Attendance has continued to be good this year, on average 80%, with a mixture of online and hybrid meetings. This has enabled even those not able to travel to attend meetings. Every meeting has been quorate during the year. Three of the SACRE meetings were held at three different places of worship: a gurdwara, a synagogue and a Catholic Church.

The Pan Berkshire syllabus was challenged by key members of a number of the Pan Berkshire SACREs, between ASC approval and council ratification. The LA chose to ask the ASC to reconvene in order to find a way forward. Therefore, the bulk of the work in the academic year 2024-25 has centred around how a new locally agreed syllabus specific to RBWM would be managed and agreed for the next academic year.

The RE adviser retired at Easter with the new RE adviser, who is an employee of the Oxford Diocesan Board of Education, taking up her new role from 1st April 2025.

SACRE has continued to work on the development plan, with particular focus on the Agreed Syllabus and the audit tool and a RAG rated version is attached in Appendix 6.

RE (STATUTORY RESPONSIBILITIES)

THE LOCALLY AGREED SYLLABUS

- The Locally Agreed Syllabus (LAS) met with a potential legal challenge following its initial approval on 21st October 2024. The challenge was brought to the SACRE under the rule which states that a syllabus review can be requested at any time by a member of SACRE. RBWM took this challenge seriously and worked with the members concerned to establish the grounds for the challenge and to seek to find ways forward. This matter is likely to continue into the academic year 2025-26.
- As a result of the challenge, the agreed launch of the Pan-Berkshire syllabus event, was reframed as a training event for schools across Berkshire. The event took place on 27th March 2025 and was well-attended by schools. It has subsequently been challenging for schools to be in a holding pattern pending the outcome of SACRE deliberations, particularly as the old syllabus remains in use following the perceived launch event.
- The civic launch of the locally agreed syllabus has also been postponed as a result.

MONITORING THE Locally Agreed Syllabus

- With the added complexity around the review of the locally agreed syllabus, there has been minimal capacity for any specific monitoring of the syllabus, although the Voluntary Controlled schools, using the current Agreed Syllabus, have been shown to have strong outcomes in RE through SIAMS inspections.

STANDARDS AND MONITORING OF RE

- In December 2024 the Chair reported that they had carried out interviews with teacher representatives from the SACRE to learn more about RE in different key stages.
- The interviews covered matters as follows:
  - The role of RE in an infant school curriculum, the learning experiences established for pupils and the opportunities provided for children to share their beliefs.
  - The most effective ways of teaching infant school pupils
  - Pupil voice from children
  - Expectations in RE with KS1 pupils
  - The justification for teaching RE in primary school
  - Experiential teaching strategies, such as visiting places of worship

- The role of RE in the secondary curriculum and its importance
  - The most effective way of teaching RE in secondary education as well as understanding the relationship between religious belief and practice
  - The differences in approach to RE during GCSEs and A-Levels.
  - The challenges in RE education
- The feedback from members was very positive as they felt much more informed on the current picture of RE in RBWM schools.
  - SACRE has continued working on an audit tool to be distributed to all schools to encourage them to begin conversations with SACRE about standards. It was made available to all schools in the autumn of 2023 to encourage the conversations to begin. The audit tool is based on the freely available REQM audit tool.
  - No schools in Windsor and Maidenhead have applied for or achieved REQM awards.
  - SACRE advertises local and national training to schools through the termly newsletter. This newsletter also contains information about resources that are available, and information about faith traditions. The initiative to include a report on the RE network meeting from the previous term, so that teachers unable to attend are able to see what has been discussed, has continued to keep attendance levels more positive.
  - SACRE has not received any complaints about RE in schools.
  - Ofsted written reports continue to carry very little mention of matters that might concern SACRE.
  - The LA continues to be aware that where School Improvement Partners attend Ofsted feedback sessions, SACRE needs to be informed of any matters relating to RE, Collective worship or community cohesion.
  - Validated data for GCSE and A Level results for June 2024 (Appendix 3) was shared with the SACRE Committee and the following points were noted:
    - GCSE Results
      - RBWM enters more pupils for RS than schools nationally
      - RBWM outperforms national averages at 9–5 and 9–4. Given Ofqual reported 2024 GCSE outcomes were broadly similar to 2023, these comparisons are robust year-on-year.
      - RBWM totals: 29% entry (vs 17% national), 76% (9–4) and 64% (9–5) (both above national). This mirrors the national pattern that RS is a high attaining humanities subject, with relatively high proportions of top grades compared with many subjects.
    - A Level Results:
      - Pass rate parity is encouraging. RBWM's A–E ≈ national* suggests teaching quality and retention are sound across schools. In the national RS context, A-level RS generally sees very high A–E rates* each year (close to 98% across all centres), so RBWM is broadly aligned on overall pass.

COLLECTIVE WORSHIP (CW) (STATUTORY RESPONSIBILITIES)

STANDARDS AND MONITORING OF CW

- As noted in the RE section above, Ofsted reports give very little information about collective worship, so SACRE's knowledge has been confined to what members of Group C share in meetings, along with feedback from SACRE members who attend schools to deliver sessions.
- Aware of the lack of knowledge, SACRE planned a Collective Worship Audit Tool to initiate a similar conversation about collective worship as hoped for with RE. With the continued work on the RE syllabus, little time has been devoted to the CW audit tool, but it remains on the action plan. With the completion of the syllabus, it is intended that more time will be given to collective worship.

- SACRE has not given any advice, though it has requested that any concerns or successes observed in visits to schools are shared with SACRE. None have been received.
- Resources for collective worship continue to be shared with schools in the termly SACRE newsletter.

DETERMINATIONS

- There are no determinations currently in force and none have been applied for during the academic year. The determination policy and process can be found here.
- No complaints have been received about collective worship. SACRE does not have the capacity to monitor collective worship formally, therefore SACRE has not advised the LA on any matters connecting to worship.

LINKS WITH OTHER BODIES

- RBWM SACRE continues to be a subscribed member of NASACRE and has also purchased the training package. Members have attended training sessions (see Appendix 5)
- The new RE Adviser is a member of AREIAC, and information is shared where it is relevant.
- The RE networks are NATRE linked and NATRE resources are shared. The RE networks are also advertised on the new RE Hubs website.
- Both the previous and the new RE advisers are also the RE adviser to the local Diocese and so training opportunities are shared.

LOCAL SACRE INVOLVEMENT

- No Governor training has been organised by SACRE, and the LA has not requested any.

SACRE'S OWN ARRANGEMENTS (STATUTORY RESPONSIBILITIES)

LA SUPPORT FOR SACRE

- SACRE pays for a professional adviser for 5 days per financial year. This covers preparation for and attendance at meetings, preparing and running the three RE network meetings, writing and editing the termly SACRE newsletter and writing the annual report. This does not cover adviser time for visiting or supporting schools, other than as additional work, paid for by the schools.
- SACRE has been supported by a dedicated clerk once again this year. Committee matters, minutes and actions have therefore been much more efficient.

MEMBERSHIP

- There has been some movement in the membership of the SACRE this year. There is a new Hindu representative, a new Judaism representative and a new KS4 teacher representative. Work is underway to secure more consistent representation from the local authority for next year. There is also a new RE Adviser for the committee from April 2025.
