

Annual Report 2013 to 2014

Introduction

The Borough's Standing Advisory Council on Religious Education (SACRE) is required, in accordance with Section 391(6) of the Education Act 1996, to publish an annual report on its activities.

Part one

Records the terms of reference of the London Borough of Hammersmith & Fulham SACRE and the occasions on which it met in 2013 to 2014.

Part two

Reports the matters dealt with by the SACRE during the year.

Part three

Notes the composition and membership of the SACRE.

Part one

The establishment, terms of reference and meetings of the SACRE

1. The Borough's SACRE was established by the Education Committee in January 1990. Its current terms of reference, as laid down by the Education Reform Act 1998, are: "to advise the authority upon such matters connected with religious worship in county schools and the religious education to be given in accordance with an agreed syllabus as the authority may refer to the Council or as the council may see fit."
2. In particular the SACRE is charged with the following responsibilities:
 - It can require the authority to review the Agreed Syllabus on religious education.
 - It may determine, on application by the headteacher that the requirement for collective worship in community schools to be wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character shall not apply to the collective worship provided for some or all of its pupils in a particular school.
 - With the authority, to review the support offered for RE teaching, the methods of teaching employed, and teachers' in-service professional development.
3. The SACRE met on four occasions in 2013 to 2014:

11 July 2013;

3 October 2013;

12 February 2014;

16 July 2014.

4. The SACRE meets at the Lilla Huset Professional Development Centre, 191 Talgarth Road, W6 8BJ. Secretarial assistance and a budget for the discharge of its duties is provided to SACRE by the Borough. The SACRE is grateful to the Borough for making this support available.

Part two

Matters dealt with by the SACRE in 2013 to 2014

5. The SACRE's activities in 2013-14 were dominated by the revision of the Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education. The Conference, which carried out the revision, completed its work and reported to the July 2014 meeting of the SACRE.
6. Prior to 2013/14 the Borough's SACRE had last met in June 2011. Ms Lesley Prior has taken on the role of consultant to the SACRE in both the Royal Borough and the London Borough of Hammersmith and Fulham as part of Tri-borough working of the Education Service. The first task was to re-convince and to strengthen membership. The first meeting took place in July 2013, unfortunately it was inquorate. However, a quorate meeting took place in October 2013 at which a Chair and Vice-Chair were appointed. The Chair and Vice-Chair are elected annually by the constituent groups.
7. With regards to Tri-borough SACRE collaboration. It was noted that statutory functions lay with the individual Borough's and that each SACRE has a statutory role in determining the Agreed Syllabus, which has to be determined at a local level. However, there are decisions that can be made collectively and these items and information can be given on a Tri-borough basis at a Tri-borough SACRE meeting. Collaboration offers a wider and richer pool from which to draw on for resources, good practise and expertise.

Agreed Syllabus

8. The first quorate meeting in October decided to hold a conference – it was recommended that the Westminster Agreed Syllabus be amended and adopted by the SACRE.

9. The Agreed Syllabus was published and launched at a training event led by Ms Lesley Prior at Hammersmith Town Hall on 1 October 2014.
10. A paper copy of the Agreed Syllabus was sent, in advance of the launch, to each school in the Borough. Schools can also access the Syllabus electronically via the school zone.

The requirement for Collective Worship

12. The SACRE received no requests in 2013 to 2014 from headteachers seeking a determination to lift or modify the requirements for collective worship in their schools. The procedures for making such a request are set out in Appendix A of this report. Information about the procedures can also be obtained from the Clerk to the SACRE at the Town Hall, Hornton Street, London W8 7NX.

Complaints

13. The SACRE was not in 2013 to 2014 asked to deal with any complaints about the RE curriculum or about religious worship in community schools.

Appendix A

The requirement for Collective Worship

Introduction

1. Section 7 of the Education Reform Act 1988 lays down that the collective worship required in community schools shall be wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character. DES circular 3/89 states that, in the Secretary of State's view, an act of worship which is 'broadly Christian' need not contain only Christian material provided, taken as a whole, it reflects the traditions of Christian belief. Any such worship should not be distinctive of any particular Christian denomination. It is not necessary for every act of worship to be of this character but within each school term the majority of acts must be so.
2. How collective worship is organised is for the headteacher to decide after consultation with the governing body, having regard to the following considerations:
 - any relevant circumstances relating to the pupils family backgrounds, for example the faith of the family;
 - their ages and aptitudes.
3. These considerations should inform:
 - the extent to which (if at all) any acts of collective worship in the school are not of a broadly Christian character;
 - the extent to which the broad traditions of Christian belief are reflected in those acts of worship of a broadly Christian character; and
 - the ways in which those traditions are reflected.

The role of the SACRE

4. If the headteacher of a community school considers that the requirements for collective worship described in paragraph two could conflict with what is required by paragraph three, he or she can apply to the local Standing Advisory Council on Religious Education (SACRE) to lift or modify the requirements. Before doing so the headteacher must consult the school's governing body who in turn may wish to seek the views of parents. The headteacher's application does not need to apply to the whole school. It can be limited to any class or description of pupils at the school, and might relate, for example, to a particular group or year group(s) in the school in which there were many pupils of a particular faith or religion.
5. The purpose of this procedure is to allow for acts of collective worship according to a faith or religion other than Christianity where, for some or all of the pupils in a school, the requirement that worship should be of a broadly Christian character is inappropriate. One factor which may inform a headteacher's decision to make an application to the SACRE is the extent of withdrawals from Christian collective worship.
6. In considering whether to grant a headteacher's request, the SACRE must take account of any relevant circumstances relating to the family backgrounds of the pupils concerned. When it has made a determination on the request – which can only take the form of acceptance or rejection without modification – it must communicate this in writing to the headteacher and state the date from which it will take effect. It is for the headteacher to decide what form the alternative worship will take, although the SACRE should be informed of the proposed arrangements.

7. The headteacher will wish to take appropriate steps to notify the governing body and parents of the new arrangements. Where such a determination is made in respect of all or some of the pupils in the school, daily collective worship must still be provided for them. Where a determination has been granted in respect of a class or description of pupils of a particular faith or religion, the alternative collective worship may be provided for those pupils as a whole. It may not be distinctive of any particular denomination of any faith or religion, but may be distinctive of a particular faith or religion. Parents continue to have a right to withdraw their children from this collective worship.
8. Any determination made under these arrangements ends after five years, unless renewed by the SACRE. There must be a review by the SACRE no later than five years after any determination was introduced; and subsequently within five years of each review. The headteacher can request an earlier review at any time, after consulting with the governing body. The headteacher must be given an opportunity to take part in any review and, in turn, is required to consult the governing body who may wish to seek the view of parents.

9. It has been a legal requirement since 1944 that all pupils attending a maintained school should take part in daily collective worship. Section 6 of the Education Reform Act provides for flexibility in timing and organisation of daily collective worship. It need now no longer be held at the start of the school day. There may be a single act of worship for all pupils or separate acts for pupils in different age groups or school groups. For this purpose, a 'school group' means any group or combination of groups in which pupils are taught or take place in other school activities; it does not mean a group reflecting particular religious beliefs.

10 If a headteacher considers that changes of the sort described in paragraphs four and five of this appendix are justified, he or she should:

- consult with the governing body,
- after that, make application to SACRE on the attached form.

Standing Advisory Council on Religious Education
